Visit of SPAVO Association for awareness for Domestic and gender-based violence	This event was an awareness visit organised by the Association for the Prevention and Handling of Domestic Violence (SPAVO) at the CUT. Its purpose was to inform and raise awareness among the university community about domestic and gender-based violence, in the context of International Women’s Day	March 2025	https://www.cut.ac.cy/digitalAssets/595/595320_1.pdf
Visit of “Apostolos Loukas” Special Education School	The university welcomed a group of beneficiaries from the Special Education School “Apostolos Loukas”, as part of activities that promote inclusion and diversity. The visitors had the opportunity to learn more about the work and initiatives of the University’s Diversity and Inclusion Office. They were then given a tour of the university Library, where they were informed about the services offered, as well as the opportunities for access to knowledge and education. This visit was part of CUT’s ongoing efforts to strengthen social cohesion and to create a university environment that is open and accessible to everyone.
