WORKING WITH THE BEST

A MAGNET FOR THE BEST NURSING, THEATRE AND ALLIED HEALTHCARE PROFESSIONALS

BMI Healthcare is the UK's largest independent healthcare employer, with 66 hospitals and over 10,000 great people.

We'd like you to think about joining us. Whether you are newly qualified, returning from a break or looking for a new challenge in a top team, we can offer you exceptional opportunities to build a career.

We're committed to care and quality

Everyone at BMI Healthcare is part of something exceptional. We're committed to quality and the very highest standards of patient care. From hospital porters to theatre practitioners to directors, we all strive to be among the best in our field and we're proud to be part of the BMI Healthcare family.

The kind of person we're looking for

If you're looking to build a great career delivering first-class service to patients, you're probably our kind of professional. Likewise, if you have an appetite for innovation and enjoy pushing yourself and trying things you never thought to do before.

How we'll help you develop

We all need to build our skills and knowledge and have the chance to work towards valuable qualifications. Our national and local training programmes develop core skills in key areas, including management, nursing and customer service. Your abilities will expand with BMI Healthcare.

What it's like to work with us

It's friendly, supportive and challenging. We know that working with great people always raises our game and we make sure that our managers spend time with you on career development and setting personal objectives.

Here's what some recent recruits have to say:

The nursing experience has been great. I've developed and expanded my skills and knowledge in a wide variety of surgery.

The ward is very exciting as no two days are the same, with different types of surgery all in the one ward. I work with world-renowned consultants, who are happy to pass on their expert knowledge. Brenda Kilcourse

We are three Spanish nurses and we have been working for BMI for three months. In the beginning it was difficult to adapt ourselves but they made it easier, helping us when we had any problems and now we are very happy each of us for having come.

Nowadays we have feelings of being part of a little family, which is our hospital and its employees, and also the big company, which is BMI. We are so grateful for this chance and we hope you to join us and BMI Healthcare! Virginia, Eva and Elena

Joining from overseas

Healthcare is a global profession. We often recruit healthcare professionals from overseas to join us in the UK, as well as British nurses who have been working abroad and now wish to return home.
